Student Announcements:

- Attention all Mama Mac's work credit students. Your final timesheet with your June estimate is due tomorrow!

- Kentwood National Honor Society Chapter is participating in a personal care item drive for YouthCare, an organization in Seattle that supports homeless youth. Kentwood Students can help by donating personal care items to include: razors and shaving cream, shampoo and conditioner, hand sanitizer, new brushes and combs, sunscreen, deodorant, feminine hygiene, lip balm, and mouthwash. We will be accepting items through May 31, you can drop them off to the donation box in room 515.

- Hey Kentwood Staff and Students: Fancy a road trip this weekend? Then come out to sunny Pasco to see our awesome baseball team in action. Friday's game starts at 4pm. If you can't make it out there, you can watch it at the WIAA site video broadcast streamed live and then saved to YouTube.

- As of Thursday May 24 we will have no more lunch charging and all lunch fines must be paid up before school ends. Thanks your lunch ladies.
- SENIOR PROM "All That Jazz" is Saturday June 1, 8:00-11:00pm at Seattle Union Station. Tickets are on sale through May 30 during all three lunches in the Activities Office. All fines must be cleared AND seniors must have passed their Junior and Senior culminating projects prior to purchasing tickets. There will only be early pictures, so sign up with the cashier after you purchase tickets to schedule your appointment time. Picture times are available every 15 minutes. Ticket prices will increase each week:

  May 20-24: Price is $35/person
  May 27-30: Price is $45/person
  After the first 400 tickets: Price is $50/person

- Just don't have the funds to purchase a new dress for Homecoming or Prom. The Kent Cinderella Project has over 200 formal and semi-formal dresses available for Kent School District students to borrow. Dates and times are available on the informational flyer posted on various bulletin boards around the school or grab a flyer outside the Activities Office!

- Attention Students who need summer school! Get your summer school paperwork filled out, meet with your counselor for a signature and turn the completed paperwork into the KW cashier ASAP to get signed up. Deadline is June 7th. Don't miss your opportunity to get caught up!

- Covington Elementary is looking for students to volunteer to help with their school carnival on June 7. There are one and a half our shifts or you can work all three hours. See Miss Daughtry or Ms. Giampapa to sign up. These hours do qualify for the junior project community service hours but is open to ALL students who wish to volunteer.

- Crestwood Elementary is looking for students to volunteer to help with their school carnival on June 14. There are 2.5 hour shifts or you can work all five hours. See Miss Daughtry or Ms. Giampapa to sign up. These hours also qualify for the junior project community service hours, but is open to ALL students who wish to volunteer.

- Reminder from attendance: Doctor notes are not accepted as an excuse unless a parent has signed the note. All notes must be signed by someone on the student's information card.

- Jamba Juice is coming to Kentwood!! Enjoy a delicious Jamba Juice fruit smoothie for just $3.00!! Jamba Juice sales will be this Friday, May 24th, during all 3 lunches in the Commons.

- Relay for Life is seeking volunteers on Saturday June 1. Please contact Tracey Thompson with any questions or contact Lacy Parker at www.lacyparker@msn.com.

Senior Announcements:

- Senior Breakfast tickets will be available to purchase on Tuesday, May 28 through June 12 during regular Cashier hours. The cost is $10.00 per senior student. Breakfast will be held at Emerald Downs following graduation rehearsal. You must provide your own transportation. Tickets will not be sold at the door.

- Diplomas will be mailed on or about July 15, 2013 to the address listed in Family Access. Please be sure your information is correct. If you need your final information, including your diploma, mailed to a different address please fill out an address correction form from the Registrar.

- Hey Seniors – if you don't have your Grad Night ticket yet, now is the time to act!! We have secured THE BEST venues (one is even brand new, no other class has been there). The buses are ready to transport you to an evening of fun, food and prizes! Speaking of prizes…we are giving away $50 in gift cards to the Senior who brings in the most friends. Just have your friends buy their Grad Night Ticket by the end of May, make sure they mention your name, and you could be $50 richer!!

- Seniors going to college need to request a final transcript on line at the Kentwood website. Please indicate you need a "Final Transcript" and include the complete address of the college you would like it sent to.

Sports:

- Summer league girl's basketball is starting May 28th for all returning players and June 11th for incoming 9th graders, as well as, anyone else interested in playing girls basketball.
