

Impromptu is a limited preparation speech in which the speaker is given two minutes to prepare a five-minute speech on a randomly drawn topic.

IMPROMPTU

GENERAL RULES

- The speech must be an original work, prepared on the spot. The student will pick three topics from the envelope, choose one, and return the other two.
- Topics are either quotations or abstract words. All topics in a given round should be one or the other. Rounds should alternate between quotations and abstract words.
- Each speech should be a fresh, unique, original presentation which is developed from the chosen topic.
- Prep time begins when the student receives the topics.
- No outside sources may be brought into the room other than a blank piece of paper. Students may not bring computers into the Impromptu event.
- The student may write notes during prep time, but no notes may be used during the speech.
- The student must adhere to the chosen topic and state it early in the speech. A one rank penalty is required for failure to do so. The speaker may approach the topic in any way he or she chooses but the topic must be the central theme of the speech, and not peripheral to it.
- The head judge in each room will have a list of possible topics and the envelope of topics from which to choose. It is recommended that each judge have a list of topics for the round.
- No props, audiovisuals, or gratuitous vulgarity will be allowed.
- No speaker is permitted to listen to other impromptu speakers before speaking himself. He may remain in the room after he has given his own speech.
- Students may express opinions, which are contrary to those of the judge. Each speech should be evaluated on the quality of the analysis and presentation, not the opinions presented.

TIME LIMIT: 2 MINUTES PREPARATION TIME; 5 MINUTES MAXIMUM SPEAKING TIME; NO MINIMUM TIME

- The student may write notes during prep time, but no notes may be used during the speech.
- The speaker must adhere to the chosen topic and state it early in the speech. A one rank drop is required for failure to do so. The speaker may approach the topic in any way he or she chooses, but the topic must be the central theme of the speech, and not peripheral to it.
- The head judge in each room will have a list of possible topics and the envelope of topics from which to choose.
- No props, audiovisuals, or gratuitous vulgarity will be allowed.
- No speaker is permitted to listen to other impromptu speakers before speaking himself. He may remain in the room after he has given his own speech.
- Students may express opinions which are contrary to those of the judge. Each speech should be evaluated on the quality of the analysis and presentation, not the opinions presented.

Tabulation Worksheet Instructions

- Rank presentations according to preference, 1 being the best, 2 being second best, etc., in the Original Rank column.
- Record penalties from the violations portion of the ballot in the Penalties in Rank column. Record a zero for no penalties.
- Add the original rank and penalties together and write the new rank in the Re-Ranking column.
- Using the Re-Ranking column to determine final ranks, proceed to fill in all the ranks in the Final Rank column. In the event of a tie, the higher rank (lower number) goes to the speaker with no, or fewer, penalties (e.g., two speakers have a 3 in the Re-Ranking column; Speaker A was originally ranked 3rd and Speaker B was 2nd with a 1 rank penalty; 2nd place now goes to Speaker A and 3rd place now goes to Speaker B.).
- Circle the final rank on each corresponding ballot.
