

CLASSES that CONNECT YOU to YOUR FUTURE

Check out the wide-variety of CAREER & TECHNICAL EDUCATION classes available to you!

BUSINESS, COMPUTER SCIENCE EDUCATION

You can't pay the bills without career skills! Whether for work, college, or play let business classes pave the way. Business classes can get you marketable skills and college credits. Business education = $$

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

Are you working? Are you planning to get a job while you are still in high school? You can earn high school credit if your job relates to a Career & Technical Education class that you have taken. Talk to a Career & Technical Education teacher to find out how to sign up today!

STUDIO PHOTOGRAPHY

Explore black and white and color photography with traditional and digital cameras, processing pictures, special effects, darkroom techniques, while building a portfolio of your work.

ENGINEERING

Experience how science concepts are used by engineers to design and develop the products that you use everyday. It's fun, fast-paced, and hands-on.

SPORTS MEDICINE

Always Start With Ice! In the Sports Medicine program you will learn how to treat and rehabilitate sports injuries. You may even meet a future professional sports star.

AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGY

Are you going to own a car? Learn how to keep it running. Develop technical skills in a National Automotive Technician Education Foundation (NATEF) certified class.

COLLEGE CREDIT

You can earn college credit for many Career & Technical Education classes that you take in high school. This is an easy and fast way to get a jump-start on college. Talk to a Career & Technical Education teacher or your Career Specialist today to find out what classes qualify.

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE

The language of the hands. Communicate without speaking. Used by thousands of Deaf and Hearing Americans. College credit opportunity!

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES

Don't leave home without us! Everything you need to know you can learn in Family and Consumer Sciences classes! Experience life and have a taste of fun!

Learn about: cooking – children – apartment hunting –managing money - health and wealth – and getting along with others.

MARKETING

Imagine being a member in DECA, developing a booth for a trade show, working in the student store, and developing your own business. You can do all of this in Marketing

CAREER CENTER

The Career Center is a career/ educational planning resource center for students, staff, and parents. The Career Specialist assists with career exploration/awareness, educational planning, and employability skills.

Learn the technical, leadership, and employability skills that will help you be successful in college and the workplace.